

Founded in 1972, AQ Holdings is an international trading company specialising in the trade of rice, pulses, grains, dhalls, spices and legumes. Our secondary product range covers baking condiments and non foods including polymers for the plastics industry.

With years of experience in servicing retailers, wholesalers and spice mills within Southern Africa and the Indian Ocean Islands, AQ Holdings stands ready to supply your business and enhance your profitability due to our direct sourcing strategies.

“We add value to your business due to our direct sourcing strategies.”